

Seth Marchant

Kids Coach
Brown Belt

Seth began training Brazilian Jiu Jitsu in 2012 and quickly progressed, earning his Blue Belt in 2013. In 2014, the birth of his son Hudson led him to take a year off from training to focus on his growing family. He returned to the mats in 2015 with renewed dedication earning his Purple Belt in 2019. In 2020, Seth and his wife welcome their daughter, Hazel.

With family as a top priority, he once again paused his training to be present during those early years. In 2024, Seth returned to the sport he loves, joining the team at Culture. Most recently, in December 2025, Seth was awarded his Brown Belt by Professor Luiz Rodrigues marking a new chapter in his continued growth on the mats.
